SEEK RECALL OF THREE CITY COUNCILMEN

Fiscal Policies Of Police, Fire Districts Hit In Report

Broadmoor residents were called on to take a close look at the "weaknesses in the organizational structure" of the Broadmoor Police and Colma Fire districts this week.

Fiscal policies of the two districts were sharply criticized in a report by William Baughman, government researcher, who prepared the survey at request of a Daly City-Broadmoor committee on annexation.

The survey, designed to show advantages and disadvantages of Broadmoor's annexation to Daly City, was received Tuesday by City Manager Howard Stites.

While the report dealt at length on all aspects of governmental operation in Daly City and Broadmoor, the findings given on the Broadmoor Police and Colma fire districts are expected to command the most interest of the annexation committee.

Because of procedures in electing commissioners in the two districts, "voters are inadequately notified; the vote is very small, and the results can be controlled by a small clique," Baughman opined in his report.

"Vote Not Canvassed"

He said, "Each of these districts serving Broadmoor are independent political jurisdictions with elected governing boards of commissioners. The commissioners control their own elections. They determine the place, and appoint the election officials. The vote is not canvassed by the board of supervisors."

Baughman said "unnecessary expenditure programs can easily result" from the districts' being controlled by a "small clique."

Baughman also called on residents of both districts to review the fiscal procedures of the two taxing entities, "and particularly the two methods whereby sound budget procedures are circumvented: The county controller does not audit the district books; therefore, it is further suggested that the adequacy of the accounts be studied and an audit be made, particularly to insure that there has been no co-mingling of tax funds or, in other words, that there be assurance that the gift clause of the constitution has not been violated."

The report added that, "both the

Daly City Revenue From Muni Court Drops $2000 In '55

Total revenue for northern district municipal court increased by nearly $50,000 in 1955, but Daly City's share fell off more than $2000.

According to the 1955 financial report received today, the municipal court received $316,024.70 for civil, criminal and traffic fines in 1955, against $266,485.23 in 1954.

Total amount received last year by Daly City was $37,778.24, as compared with $39,571.30 in 1954.

Daly City's share of the money for 1956 was broken down as follows: Moving traffic violations, $16,932.42; non-moving violations, $8045.74; meter citations, $2999.72; bail forfeitures, $3845.76; criminal fines, $5954.60. The court disposed of 8455 traffic matters in Daly City for the year.

Town of Colma received $910.60 during 1955 off of 206 traffic matters, of which $865 came from moving violations, $45 from bail forfeitures.

South San Francisco received the largest share of the court monies, $60,689.20, while San Bruno realized $39,824.50.

Water Runs Into Money, City Told By Sewage District

North San Mateo county sanitation district board of directors are doing some checking this week to find out the whereabouts of several thousand cubic feet of water that the city claims is being used daily at the sewage plant.

Councilman Vickers, a member of the district board of directors, said the new sewage treatment plant in Westlake was supposed to use only 1500 cubic feet of water daily, according to the strictest calculations of the district engineer.

But the city has been charging the district for as high as 6000 cubic feet a day, Vickers pointed out.

City Manager Howard Stites said that the readings were taken from accurate water meters, "so the water must be going through there." Stites said the district should check its pipelines within the treatment plant to determine if the water was escaping somewhere at the plant.

"We've budgeted ourselves on the basis of 1500 cubic feet a day and when 6000 feet goes through it runs into a big bill," Vickers explained.

Since the Westlake Improvement association has hired beauteous ALYCE SHEA as secretary-manager, the payment of dues and assessments to the association is expected to increase several-fold.

Maybe all that litigation to get the members to fork over dues could have been avoided had such a comely lass as Mrs. Shea been collecting money for the pot.

DON MOSSI, Daly City's gift to the Cleveland Indians, may not have to work so hard this season in his role as relief pitcher.

The Indian management figures they've got only one big problem this year, and that's to get some help for RAY NARLESKI and Mossi, who carried all the load last year.

City Cool To 2nd Plan For Drain District

Daly City will send a representative to the January 12 meeting for formation of a North County cities flood control district, but the council indicated Tuesday night they weren't going to jump into the project feet first.

Last week a meeting was held at the home of South San Francisco mayor Telford L. Smith to discuss formation of a flood control district "to solve mutual drainage problems on a mutual basis."

City Manager Howard Stites, who attended last week's flood control meeting, along with representatives of other north county cities, said property owners in the district would pay on the basis of benefit received by the flood control measures, rather than on the basis of actual property valuation.

Mayor Joseph Verducci noted that, "South San Francisco is pushing this thing, as they are primarily concerned, but we would be willing to take part in it as long as we have some representation. If we're not going to have any say in this then we'll fight it as hard as we can."

Three years ago a similar proposals for a north county drainage district bogged down because of conflict among the cities on representation and assessment of costs.

Last week Supervisor Thomas Callan Sr. proposed a drainage district which would encompass parts of Daly City and Broadmoor to handle what he termed the "Lake Merced run-off."

City Attorney Orders Woman To Appear On Leash Law Violation

Mrs. Frank Sears, 169 East Vista avenue, has been ordered to appear before City Attorney Frank B. Blum on Monday because of alleged violations of the recently enacted dog leash ordinance.

Blum's order constitutes the first time legal action has been taken since the ordinance took effect November 17.

Mrs. Sears has violated the law in allowing her mongrel dog to roam the streets without a leash, according to Poundmaster Charles Maschinot, who added that the woman has received four warnings. Numerous complaints have been received by neighbors, Maschinot said.

DECISION MONDAY ON ASSESSMENT SWITCH

Daly City council will vote next Monday on the controversial proposal to turn property assessment and tax collecting over to San Mateo county.

At last week's meeting citizens protested the transfer of duties and they continued their assault against the proposal at Tuesday's study session.

The council took no formal action on the transfer of functions. In fact, only one councilman, Del Wilson, spoke at any length in favor of the plan.

Because the contract with the county will have to be made by February 1 and because such action would have to be resolved by ordinance, the council must make its decision next Monday or will continue for the next year under the present set-up. Tax collecting and assessing is now handled by the city clerk.

Claims Savings

City Manager Howard Stites claims the city can save from $5000 to $10,000 a year by turning the two duties over to the county, which would contract to do the work at approximately $3000 a year.

Ed Cavagnaro, formerly city councilmen and presently a recreation commissioner, was the most staunch opponent of the transfer.

He said Tuesday that, "I don't think it's good business to let the board of supervisors tell us what our assessments should be. Besides, Ross (City Clerk B. C. Ross) ought to be given some consideration. He's been doing a good job."

Another citizen, Peter Linden, said turning over of the tax and assessment duties to the county would pose an inconvenience on veterans, who would have to go to Redwood City every year to obtain their tax exemption.

"No Extra Transactions"

Stites answered that the veterans had to pay county taxes already, so the change would not mean any extra transactions with the county.

Tony Masini, newly-appointed planning commissioner, said, "This issue is too big for the council to decide. It will affect the taxes of every person in Daly City. I think you should put it before the people on the April ballot."

Robert Young said, "I'm not complaining about Daly City's taxes and I don't think many people are. We're getting a lot for our money but maybe we won't be if you turn these duties over to the county."

Councilman Wilson held that it was "all this duplication that's running up our taxes. We'll cut down this duplication by turning these functions over to the county."

Since Mayor Joseph Verducci will not be present at Monday's council meeting, there is a possibility that the issue will end in a split vote.

DC ROOKIE COP ARRESTS ALLEGED CAR THIEF HERE

Frank Murray, rookie police officer, apprehended an alleged car thief here Tuesday night. Arrested and turned over to San Francisco police was Gary E. Atwood, 19, 1640 Alabama street, San Francisco.

Murray reported that he first saw Atwood "weaving" a car through traffic lanes on Alemany boulevard. The officer followed the car to Crestwood drive, where Atwood parked and disappeared into the apartment area.

A call to San Francisco police to check whether the car had been stolen provided a negative answer. Murray, however, checked the auto again and found tinfoil, commonly used by car thiefs to start the ignition. A second call to San Francisco resulted in confirmation that the car had been stolen and the

MINOR TIZZY OVER COUNTING PARKING MONEY

Who counts the money?

That was the question posed to the city council Tuesday night by Councilman Edward Dennis, who pointed out that the city ordinance stipulates parking meter revenue shall be counted by the city treasurer, Paul Selmi.

Up to now, the money has been tabulated in the accounting office, said City Manager Howard Stites. As a final check, the bank also counts the coins.

"It's funny that before I came here Selmi never bothered to count parking meter money. He just turned it over to the bank and they counted it. Now that we've started counting it for the city, he wants to be included," said Stites.

"We want to cooperate with the treasurer," declared Mayor Joseph Verducci. "So why don't you invite him to the accounting office when you count it so he can witness it?"

Stites said this was agreeable and Controller Jerome Scharfman was directed to invite Selmi to the counting of the money each week.

Verducci said it would cost the city $300 or $400 to purchase Selmi a coin counting machine and that the proposed arrangement would eliminate this necessity.

Fall Down 20 Stairs Kills Man

A 69-year-old Daly City man died early New Year's morning after falling down a flight of stairs at Colombo hall as he was leaving a party.

William Passaglia, 799 Hillside boulevard, was taken to Junipero Serra hospital by Broadmoor ambulance at 2:40 a.m. after toppling down 20 stairs at the hall, and banging his head at the bottom. He was pronounced dead at 3 a.m.

Attending physicians said the man may have been killed by a heart attack, but a coroner's inquest is pending.

Otherwise, New Year's was quiet throughout the Broadmoor Police district, according to Chief Ray Savage.

Both patrol cars were on duty but Savage said "the quietest New Year's I can remember," found the blotter clean of any citations for drunkenness, drunk driving, accidents or malicious mischief. "It was like an ordinary Saturday night," the chief observed.

SUPERVISORS PLAN BUILDING COMMITTEE

Activation of the county board of supervisors' committee on public buildings, approved but never put into effect, is expected by the board at next Tuesday's meeting. Proposal to activate the committee by Supervisor Martin A. Poss follows recent grand jury criticism of County Manager E. R. Stallings for his handling of county construction contracts.

Stallings announced that the committee would be of "invaluable assistance."

The three-man committee, which would be appointed by Chairman Thomas J. Callan, would be consulted on all building costing over $4000. In jobs costing less than $4000, detailed reports to the committee by the manager would be required.

March Of Dimes Drive Gets Underway In DC

The 1956 "March of Dimes" campaign got underway Tuesday with emphasis on the slogan, "Polio Isn't Licked Yet." The drive will continue through January 31 on which date will be held the annual Mothers' March, again headed in Daly City by Mrs. Sanford Vickers.

Henry Misselwitz, National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis San Mateo county executive secretary, announces the following persons as local campaign chairmen:

Jay Irick of the Westlake branch of the Bank of America, Daly City chairman, and Joseph Garibaldi and John H. Markman, Colma co-chairmen.

"No vaccine can help those already stricken by polio," T. J. Hallinan, veteran director of the annual polio funds campaign in this county, said. "They are crippled already, and continue to need financial aid on the long road back to recovery or at least usefulness from the crippling effects of this malady."

The new Salk vaccine has been pronounced safe and effective, Director Hallinan said, but added that "too many people still are dubious, and hold back on letting their children take the vaccine shots at this time."

There were two score and more of polio cases in San Mateo county during 1955, it was revealed, most of whom asked for and received financial aid from the "March of Dimes" funds through the local county chapter.

It is declared that these new cases plus the many other cases from previous years have depleted the county chapter funds.

NEW NORTH COUNTY ROADS ARE PLANNED

Three major thoroughfares in northern San Mateo county were discussed Tuesday night by the Callan committee on cross-county roads.

One would be a two-lane road from Brisbane to Daly City; the second a route from Bayshore freeway to Hillside boulevard in Daly City, with possible connections at Chester street in South San Francisco; and the third from San Bruno avenue in San Bruno to Skyline boulevard.

The Brisbane-Daly City route would join here at Market or

File Notice Next Week To Unseat DC Officials

Recall proceedings against three Daly City councilmen will be launched next week, THE RECORD learned exclusively today.

The recall group will attempt to unseat Councilmen Micheal De Bernardi, Sanford Vickers and Del Wilson, all of whom have two years remaining in office.

Committee preparing the recall papers is made up of Paul Selmi, city treasurer, Arthur Bodien, former water superintendent, and Andrew Van Der Werff, Herman Kalinin and Nate Pearlman, all members of the building trades.

In the notice of intention to circulate a recall petition, which will be published next week, the reasons given for removing the three councilmen are: "Disregard of the rights and wishes of the people of Daly City; sanctioning of questionable bidding procedures on purchases by Daly City of equipment involving expenditure of many thousands of dollars; and incompetence and permitting the violation of legally required fiscal procedures."

San Francisco attorney H. Ward Dawson Jr. is handling the legal work for the recall, according to Selmi.

Was A Backer

Selmi, who has been at odds with the city administration for the past year or more, was one of the most active campaigners for Wilson and De Bernardi in the 1954 election.

After the notice of intention to circulate a recall petition is published, it must be served upon the three councilmen, who may answer the charges in 500 words or less within 14 days after the publication.

Twenty-one days after January 12, when the notice of intention is scheduled to be published, the recall group may start circulating the petition. A total of approximately 1200 signatures, or 12 per cent of the estimated 10,000 registered voters, is needed to force the recall election.

The petitions will have to be filed with the city clerk within 60 days after the first publication of the notice.

On Regular Ballot

Apparently the recall group plans to complete the securing of signatures before this date, so they will have sufficient time to place

Callan Ousts Gaggero From Commission

Ouster of Anthony J. Gaggero from the county civil service commission this week was one of the first official acts of Thomas J. Callan in his new role of chairman of the board of supervisors. Gaggero, former Daly City mayor who ran against Callan for the supervisor post in 1952, has held the commission position for 10 years.

Callan, 64, was elected to the chairmanship of the board Tuesday by a unanimous vote of the other supervisors, who have all served prior terms as chairman. It is the custom of the board to rotate the head position.

Reason for failure to appoint Gaggero to another four-year term was that Gaggero, who is president of the County Fair association, will be "too busy at the Fiesta," Callan declared.

"No Busier Now"

Gaggero, however, immediately rejected the reason given by Callan. "I'm no busier now than I was before," he claimed. "I don't know what the real reason is. Maybe it is just that Callan does not like my work."

Callan told the supervisor meeting that Gaggero did a "good job" while on the commission. He further explained that he did not reappoint Gaggero because of the death of County Tax Collector Ralph C. MacArthur who had handled the racing program at

The election to vote on whether Broadmoor becomes the City of Northgate, is only little more than two weeks away.

Yet there hasn't been one stick of type set for campaign purposes.

Even the red-hot incorporation enthusiasts are steering shy of this one, since the boundaries of the area would make incorporation sheer suicide.

An alarming observation in the WILLIAM BAUGHMAN annexation survey for Daly City-Broadmoor is that Daly City's water supply is fast disappearing.

The county supervisors, by a vote of 4-1, will probably clear county manager ROBERT STALLINGS of the censure sought by the county grand jury for indiscreet purchasing practices.

Four of the supervisors have already cast their ballots through the press, although ignorant of transcript of the case, while TOM CALLAN SR. of Colma is reserving his opinion until receipt of the jury's report.

The transcript is scheduled to be forwarded to the board next Tuesday.

Last weekend's human happenings brought out a more than usual array of bizaare incidents in Daly City: A T-bone steak was the principal clue in a break-in; a gun fired while in its owners pocket, having the obviously harmful effects; a charcoal broiler gave off fumes that resulted in temporary hospitalization of the amateur cooks; thieves continued the raid on Christmas lights, although the yuletide season is long gone.

Arrest DC Housewife In Bedroom Closet

Scene of arrest of Mrs. Francis Medeiros, 35, was the bedroom closet of her home at 125 Alexander avenue on Wednesday night. Mrs. Medeiros, wanted on four San Francisco traffic warrants amounting to $179, was arrested by Police Officer John Van Otten.

The officer reported that when he arrived at the residence at 9:15 p.m., he was told by Mrs. Medeiros' husband that his wife was in Washington. Suspecting otherwise, Van Otten said he entered the house "under protest" by Medeiros to search the residence.

Mrs. Medeiros, found hiding in a bedroom closet, resisted arrest, according to Van Otten, and Officer Frank Murray was called to assist. The pair handcuffed Mrs. Medeiros and she was led off to the station and later transferred to San Francisco police.

Biggest Insurance Ad

The biggest insurance ad ever printed in any magazine is a feature of the January issue of Reader's Digest, according to Sal Massaro, Westlake agent for State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Company.

Telling the complete story of State Farm Mutual's service and plan of operation, this is the first multiple-page ad ever run in Reader's Digest since the publication inaugurated its policy of accepting a limited amount of advertising. Occupying six pages, the single ad required two whole carloads of paper for its printing in the magazine's more than 10,000,000 copies.

COAST FAMILY REUNITED WITH MANILA DAUGHTER

A Sharp Park family were reunited with their eldest daughter Friday after an eight-year absence. Master Sergeant and Mrs. Antonio W. Cruz of 504 Manor drive greeted daughter Dalisay at Fort Mason as she arrived on the USNS Transport General Barrett from Manila.

Miss Cruz' arrival in this country is the result of a special congressional bill sponsored by Congressman J. Arthur Younger. The bill was necessary because Miss Cruz turned 21 before she could be brought here on a visa listing her as a minor dependent. She was placed on the regular immigration quota which would have meant many more years of waiting.

With the help of Chaplain Wayne F. Kildall, Congressman Younger successfully received congressional approval of Miss Cruz' entry to this country.

The five other Cruz children are Aurora, 8; Antonio Jr., 15; Delores, 17; Benjamin, 19; and Lydia, 21.

"The only reason I am asking the change is because, now that MacArthur is gone, Gaggero will be too busy at the fair," Callan declared.

Appointed by Callan to fill Gaggero's post was Henry C. Hall Jr. of San Bruno, professor at the University of San Francisco. Ironically, Gaggero was originally named to the commission in 1944 to succeed Hall, who resigned when his jobs as assistant deputy county superintendent of schools and civil service commissioner were found to be incompatible.

We're grateful that most of our customers had uninterrupted service right through the recent heavy storms and disastrous floods. But you may live in one of the areas where service was out for a time. If so, we thank you for being patient until our crews could restore your service.

When the gales struck and the floods came, they hit us along with everyone else.

Some of our facilities were flooded and temporarily taken out of operation, but the service interruptions experienced by our customers came from damaged electric lines. Literally hundreds of lines were ripped down by heavy winds and raging water.

Our employees worked valiantly around the clock, however, and held interruptions to relatively short periods in most cases. We are proud of their selfless devotion to public service.

So once more, thank you for your cooperation, your understanding, your patience. And—like you—we sincerely hope the floods will never come again!

Seek Recall Of Three City Councilmen

the recall on the April 10 general election ballot, when Mayor Joseph Verducci and Councilmen Ed Dennis' terms expire.

The election cannot be held in less than 35 nor more than 60 days after the clerk has certified the signatures on the petition.

Along with the recall, voters will also decide whether new councilmen should be appointed or chosen at a special election, should any or all of the councilmen be recalled. Majority vote is required for recall.

Should the recall by successful, Daly City might find itself in a parallel situation with the city of San Carlos, which on December 5 recalled three of their five councilmen.

Boycott Meetings

Although the ousted San Carlos officials were scheduled to serve until a special election January 25, they have boycotted the council meetings and the city has over $35,000 in unpaid bills accumulating because a quorum is necessary for payment.

Of the two councilmen remaining, both of whose terms expire in April, one of them, James E. Price, has indicated he will not be a candidate for re-election. Meanwhile, the city administrator has resigned and the community is faced with the necessity of instituting commission type government to keep the city business operating.

At a special meeting of the San Carlos council Wednesday night, only the mayor showed up.

TREADING DANGEROUS TERRITORY

As tempo of protest increased this week against the transferring of city assessing and tax collecting to San Mateo county, it becomes more obvious that the city council would be acting against public sentiment to approve such a transfer.

As we pointed out editorially last week, whenever a city function is placed under jurisdiction of the county, nobody gains but the county, and the city further relinquishes its autonomy in local matters.

All neatly ordered statistics notwithstanding, we and the people of this community have for too long felt the "bite" of the county to hazard putting our heads into its lionine mouth again.

This was emphasized at Tuesday's council meeting by long-time residents of the city who remembered earlier instances where the county was going to "take it over for us and save all that money."

It just wasn't so, and the taxpayers have their receipts to show for it.

The suggestion that the issue be placed on the ballot in April is one that makes sense.

If the people approved the move, which we sincerely doubt they would do, the issue would be resolved in a wholly equitable manner acceptable to both sides.

But the council treads on dangerous territory when they consider letting the county do for us something which we already handle quite adequately ourselves.

FINDING BETTER GOVERNMENT

As we begin the tender year 1956, we like to envision a year of active participation in city government by all the responsible members of the community.

As the whole is never greater than its several parts, so a community and its government can never arise above the people who go to make it up.

Yet there are thousands of people in Daly City, belonging to hundreds of organizations, who could contribute individually and together to stimulate better government.

We would like to see church groups and women's clubs start sending a representative, or their whole membership, to the council meetings. We would like to see members of these clubs and religious groups dedicate themselves to investigating the workings of government and to contribute themselves to projects of community betterment.

We would like these things to come about, because we are confident that the government of this city would benefit by these people's participation.

Etymologically, the word democracy means "all govern."

But one cannot govern rationally without first acquainting oneself with the community to be governed.

We're looking for better government through the sincere efforts of and study by our community's leading organizations. We hope these groups will help us find it.

FRIENDLY NEIGHBORS gather for dinner at one of the member's homes at their semi-monthly meetings. The organization, founded in August of 1949 by six women, now boasts 13 members. Meetings are held on the second and fourth Wednesdays of the month and provide an evening out for Mom." Shown here (left to right) are, Mesdames: Doris Olmanson, Elizabeth Kirby, Lillian Caime, Wilma Van Aken, Ruth Huelse, Ann MacNealy, Eleanor Doyle, Daisy Wong and Pat Urbanus. Members not shown are Mesdames Ann Ornellas, Gerry Vickers, Lorraine Bovero and Diane Gravatt. THE RECORD photo

Form Friendly Neighbors "To Become Acquainted"

Editor's note: This is the seventh of a series of articles on local women's organizations. THE RECORD will feature each women's club listed in our files in alphabetical order.

"To become better acquainted with our neighbors and to make our neighborhood a happy place in which to live" is the reason given for the formation of the Friendly Neighbors club. Secondary purpose of the group is to provide "an evening out for Mom."

The organization, founded in August of 1949, now boasts 13 members. Meetings are held on the second and fourth Wednesdays of the month at members' homes.

Interest of members in their club is proved by the fact that Mrs. Diane Gravatt, who was a resident of Abbot avenue before moving to Belmont, has retained her membership and travels to Daly City for meetings. Mesdames Ann Ornellas and Lillian Caime were recently welcomed back to the group after a two-year absence during which they lived out of Daly City.

Mothers' March

Special philanthropies of the club include participating in the Mothers' March of the annual March of Dimes. Mrs. Sanford Vickers, one of the club's founders, is Daly City chairman for that event.

The group only recently adopted three patients at the San Mateo sanitorium, and members send gifts at Christmas and shower them with cards throughout the year.

Friendly Neighbor women also send clothing and candy to Mission San Jose orphanage and helped a needy family at Easter time with food, clothing and household furniture.

Social Activities

Social activities include an occasion get-to-gether in a member's home for a share the cost dinner, with members and their husbands attending. The group has held 20 such dinners to date.

Throughout the summer months the club holds family picnic and barbecues.

Members' children are honored guests at annual Christmas parties and Easter egg hunts. Another holiday observed by the group is New Year's, when women and their husbands enjoy a New Year's Eve party.

Going Away Gifts

A going away gift is awarded every member who moves from Abbot avenue, and to honor the member who is leaving, the women dine out at a restaurant.

Another special event taken into account by the club is the arrival of new babies, with 11 showers being given to date and two more planned for the near future.

Officers, elected every six months, are Mrs. Pat Urbanos, secretary, and Mrs. Wilma Van Aken, treasurer.

Other members are, Mesdames: Ruth Huelse, Daisy Wong, Doris Olmanson, Ann Ornellas, Gerry Vickers, Lorraine Bovero, Ann MacNealy, Elizabeth Kirby, Lilliane Caime, Diane Gravatt and Eleanor Doyle.

TV and Radio

By Mona Baker

PERSONALITY SKETCH . . . "Come on, kiddies, let's dance" . . . With a gay toss of their heads, little tots in fluffy dresses and colorful suits skip happily onto the TV stage as KQED's popular "Hop, Skip and Dance" program under the skilled direction of Dick Ford, noted Bay Area dancer begins every Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 p.m. (new time).

The young dancer will celebrate his first year on television next Wednesday, January 11, and will feature as participants in his program children from the Village Play school, the cooperative nursery school for this area.

This program on Channel 9 is unique among children's television programs, and not only is it viewed consistently in most bay area homes with small children, but also the program has received nationwide recognition. Dick Ford does a truly magnificent job in holding the children's interest throughout the entire show. With a genuine fondness for and understanding of children he is able to make even the most reluctant little one respond. He builds up their interest by telling a story, and then invites each little tot to create a dance that fits the story.

Pretend Ornaments

We watched his program in which he suggested each child should pretend he were a Christmas ornament, and following his dance go over and select a branch of the Christmas tree on which he would like to be hung. At the conclusion of the dance, each little child was draped gracefully around the tree in a striking pose, and to us it appeared as though a regular dance had been rehearsed instead of a dance just created by the children themselves.

We also watched his special Christmas show "The Wonderful Room," and with 100 children participating we felt the program was an outstanding production.

Star Of Show

The star of the show is one of the country's most promising young dancers. A native Californian, he studied under Ann Halprin and Welland Lathrop and has been a featured soloist for the San Francisco Dance League and the Pacific Dance Theater. His wife, Marguerite, is also a ballet-dancer. The Fords have two small daughters and live in Kentfield, Marin county.

Dick Ford has taught dancing at the Village Play school for four years. Local children who will appear on the anniversary program on January 11 include Garv Hewett, Karen Peterson, Ruth Graham, Susan Sawhill, Peter Senter and Jeffrey and Jimmy Lawrence.

KIDDIES' CORNER . . . . Last spring one of the largest audiences ever to witness a single network program—67,300,000 viewers—saw the magnificent production of "Peter Pan" starring Mary Martin on NBC-TV's "Producers' Showcase." Forty-three per cent of all American families watched the program with a total of 20,400,000 homes reached by the telecast according to a Nielsen survey. Next week NBC has again scheduled the delightful program to be telecast in campatible color and black and white on January 9 at 4:30 p.m. over KRON-TV. Don't miss the program. It is exciting and thrilling television for both young and old alike. Last spring the network reported that there were thousands of "Peter Pan" parties throughout the nation . . . so why not plan your own "Peter Pan" party and thrill with the rest of the country to the telecast.

TELEVISION STARS FOR THIS WEEK . . . More children from our area appeared on Buckskin Bob's program telecast last week over Channel 9. Local children who were guests on the show included Dickie, Jackie and Tommy Crofton, and Rusty and Brad Cunningham.

Two For Tonight

By Leonore Brewer

Marcel Marceau, French pantomimist, is coming to the Geary for sixteen performances, beginning January 8. Except for two assistants, whose only contribution to the act is to hold up the cards that announce each new theme, Marceau is alone on the stage, yet gives the impression that any number of people come and go. Background music is provided by records.

At his recent appearance in Los Angeles, one reviewer credited him with living up to his billing of world's greatest pantomimist.

Probably the best known of the children of his imagination is "Mr. Bip." The best description of this character is Marceau's own: "Bip, as he moves around the world of fantasy he himself has created, is not a tragic hero but a comic hero, always on the brink of tragedy. One might say, Charlie Chaplin's younger brother." There is Bip the lion tamer; Bip the skater; Bip the butterfly hunter, and Bip as both David and Goliath.

Silence Is Golden

Marceau sketches all his characters by facial play or body movement alone, with never a word spoken. This silence is in the tradition of Baptiste Deburau, the great French Pantomimist of the nineteenth century, who believed that the spoken word was unnecessary.

It's interesting to learn that not al pantomime performers agreed with Deburau. Most of them so longed for speech that, spoken words being prohibited by governmental authorities, occasionally fines were paid in order to have spoken dialogue inserted in the pantomimes of that day.

Once speech gained a foot in the door of pantomime, songs and parodies of popular farces quickly followed and the art of pantomime declined. Of course, there were always a few to keep it flickering. Charles Deburau, son of Baptiste, his pupil Rouffe and the latter's pupil Severin carried the traditional pantomime performances into the first decades of our century. Then came Etienne Decroux and now his pupil, Marcel Marceau.

Tradition of Laughter

Asked why he had chosen that particular form of dramatic expression, Marceau replied, " . . . . The art of the mime, halfway between dancing and the theater is a complete art. A mime can come closest to identification with both human being and inanimate objects and express the most carefully hidden feelings. Above all . . . the only material it uses is the human being."

Some readers may wonder, well, maybe it's Art, but is it Fun? Pantomime had a long tradition of laughter even before the principal characters of Harlequin, Pierrot and Columbine made their first appearance in Renaissance Italy, when the commedia dell' arte began. Since then, these same characters have appeared in various guises. Mack Sennett's one-reel comedies were full of them; Charles Chaplin and Buster Keaton are still with us; the Marx Brothers' pictures come to mind, and to bring us right up to date, there's Danny Kaye. Marceau and the above have a common ever-so-great grandparents in the types created by commedia dell 'arte so long ago.

We have an idea that an evening spent with the creater of Mr. Bip is going to be an evening well spent.

News From Here & There

The Thomas Brewers of Wilshire were quite happy to have their son Jerry home for the Christmas holidays. Right now Jerry is stationed at the Naval Supply Center in Oakland.

The Pinocle Club of Wyandotte held their annual Christmas party in Carlmont, at the home of Mrs. Mary Sheets, a former member and resident of our city. This club was formed five years ago, and the girls look forward to their weekly get togethers.

Seems that more happy birthday wishes are due in the Ornellas household on Abbot. Belated birthday wishes to Dona, who so very recently celebrated her eighth birthday. Happy birthday to Ann (Mom) who is about to add another candle to that brithday cake.

Christmas at the Frasu home on Muirwood drive was a quiet one, with measles keeping Micheal and Patty in bed over the holidays. Although the children had a bad seige of it, Santa Claus did not overlook this family. Hear that Mom and Dad (Joyce and Gene) recently celebrated their eighth anniversary. So our belated wishes, folks.

The Arthur Huelses's of Abbot have been busy entertaining Mr. and Mrs. John Irons from Rochester, New York, who are frequent visitors to our fair city. . . . Hear that Art, Ruth and his folks on Willetts enjoyed the East West Shrine game at Kezar last weekend.

Another one of our local servicemen who was home on leave for the holidays was Delmas Hayes of Shakespeare street. While en route home, Delmas became acquainted with two ladies, who later became stranded here and unable to go to their families in the flood area. Thanks to the hospitality of the Lee D. Hayes, these ladies stayed with the folks until word was received that they could travel on home.

Belated birthday wishes to Miss Betty Ann MacNealy of Abbot, who so very recently celebrated her sixth birthday.

Over the holidays the Eschler home on Bismark was a busy one, with friends from Great Falls, Montana, here visiting for a few days. After their departure relatives from Thornton, Calif., arrived to help the folks celebrate Christmas. Last report from 190 Bismark was that all was back to normal once again.

Sorry to hear that Mrs. Phillis Ames of Abbot has been on the sick list. Hear that the pneumonia bug has been giving her a rough time of it. Hope you'll soon be feeling lots better, Phill.

Victims of the flood area in Marysville were the parents of Ward Angilley who spent their holidays here with the folks on School street. They were given a two-hour notice to evacuate their home. At the time I talked to Mrs. Angilley the folks were able to go back, but she is now anxiously awaiting news from all her relatives in Yuba City.

Congratulations to Muriel and Louis Muzio of Willets, who welcomed their second child and first son December 16. Joseph Louis Jr. arrived at Mt. Zion hospital tipping the scales at 7 lbs., 4 ozs. Sister Joanne, who is two years old, is quite happy about her future playmate. Thanks a lot, folks, for sending me the announcement of the new addition.

Seems we have more names to add to our sick list this week with bad colds keeping the two Lawrence children, Colleen and Susie, in doors. Hear that they spent their Christmas in bed. A bad cold is keeping Dona Lesher out of circulation also. . . . After a bout with pneumonia, Mrs. Mary Mahood is feeling a little better. . . . Measles has been giving Bobby Aeillo a bad time.

A visit aboard a banana boat was the latest outing that the Girl Scouts in Troop 66 enjoyed one day last week. The girls toured the boat under the guidance of Roy Willouby (grandfather to one of the girls.)

Abbot avenue was buzzing last week when many of the youngsters went from door to door collecting food and clothing for the flood victims. Everything was later taken to one of the local firehouses by Liz Kirby and Andy Castle.

Instead of their usual meeting last week the Cub Scouts in Den 4 enjoyed a wonderful and impressive visit to the Golden State Ice Cream Co.

In their spare time Jeannine and Donna Mahood of Moltke street can be found out at Skateland taking private skating lessons, which will help them to add a gold bar and bronze medal to their many achievements.

Here visiting with his two sisters, Ann MacNealy of Abbot and Sue Sampico of Rice street, is Alec Sullivan and his family from Lake county.

How about a card shower for Shirl Mollette, who has been in the SP hospitol convalesing for several months now due to a train injury. Before his accident, Mr. Mollette was very active in the Garden Club. All his friends and neighbors on Muirwood drive miss him very much and hope that he will be home soon.

Christmas day the Matgen home on Reiner street turned out to be a hectic one, when two and a half year old Bobby decided to find out for himself how an automatic washing machine operates. Due to his investigation, Master Bobby is sporting a badly crushed finger which required several stitches.

News From Sterling Park

Cub Scouts in Pack 184 are very busy going from door to door collecting food and clothing for the flood victims.

The George Hillman home on B street was a happy scene the other evening when the Marsiglis and the Lewises gathered there to help Pete Edgeman celebrate his birthday.

Sorry to say that there is no news from Callan Heights this week, at least I haven't heard anything from there. How about hearing from you folks?

Well, once again I must say adieu for this week. Remember to call PL 5-5419 with all your news.

Village Notes

By Gwin Mitchell

PL 5-0679

As is customary this time of year, the holiday flurry has swept through the Villages, and everybody is gradually getting back to normal. School has started again, and mothers are relaxing a little in between cleaning up pine needles and parts of new games. Fathers are back in routine—without turkey sandwiches for lunch!—and the era of the white sales is with us once more. 1956 has begun!

Back in 1955, between Christmas and New Year's, Gerry Reichard had a luncheon party over Gilman way. One of her longest-time friends, Janet Overin, stopped by on her way back to Whittier after a visit with her sister in SF. With her came husband Courtney and their four girls, and what with the Reichards' three young ones, the lunch was a very gay and talkative one.

Just before Christmas, Ash and Dolores Helmer had their Maddux drive neighbors in for a gathering, with Jack and Helen Baumgartner, Vern and Jean Box, Ray and Bea Meade, and Don and Gwin Mitchell sharing games, carols and good cheer.

We were glad to learn that Ron Schmidt did get home from Children's hospital for both the Christmas and New Year weekends after all, even though he will have to wait a while longer before coming home for good. There was one happy family on Midway this holiday season for certain.

Santa Claus was a johnny-come-lately for the Elio Fontanas on Fontanas on Alder avenue. Their first, and best, gift was daughter Valerie, born a week before Christmas. The nicest thing about it is that she can be shared and loved equally by Terry, Elio and proud brother Mark, who are very busy with 7 lbs., 7 oz. of new baby to care for.

Comings and goings: Louise and Roger Sisk had Roger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Sisk, visiting them from Glendale for the holidays. Also joining the household on Village Lane for a while was Roger's cousin, Bob Rogers, who was on a business trip in the States. He lives on the island of Maui, T. H., and works for C & H Sugar. . . . Glen and Pearl South and boys headed north to Redding to spend Christmas, et al, with Glenn's family, making one less Larchmont family for a while. . . Midway's George and Helen Saper had a family gathering, too, with Helen's niece and nephew, her mother and her aunt all sharing in the Christmas fun.

While we're on Midway, Kay Mattson took advantage of the new room Carl built had a family party Christmas Eve, buffet supper and all. With all the extra space, 15 adults and 15 children hardly got in each others' way at all, at all! . . . And then, on Christmas Day, Al and Helene Gurewitz gave an open house which included a total of 45 guests or so. Friends came from Broadmoor, Westlake, San Francisco and several other places. There must be something about holiday time which makes houses, as well as people, more expansive!

Helen Baumgartner was going to have a neighborhood "afternoon" too, but daughter Paula decided to have mumps instead. She was alone in her glory on Maddux (as far as we know), but several of the McBain family and Russell Green over on Manila were in the same boat. A fine sort of celebration!

Al Toschi had a bit of excitement, too. His car was stolen from where he had parked it downtown, but it was only half an hour or so later that the people who took it were caught going through a stop sign, and back home came the Toschi car, intact, much to everybody's relief and delight.

Guerneville residents Clarence and Evelyn Lehmann came down to spend Christmas day with Bea and Ray Meade on Maddux, but hurried right back to help friends and neighbors less fortunate in the flood than they. The water was in their street and lapping at the wall around their yard but it didn't get in. . . . Alyce Bird had to go up to Napa (where Clark works and where the Birds will be moving), to bring Clark home for Christmas, and she said it resembled a lake. That was Friday. Saturday, on the way home, they stoped in Corte Madera for dinner with relatives. It was flooded, too. They came on home to Sweetwood and stayed home for Christmas morning, then went down to Linda Mar, which was sort of hard hit as well, for dinner with more relatives. All in all, the Birds certainly saw a lot of wet and watery places!

Over on Louvaine, Janet Rizzo also had a big family dinner on Christmas. Her cousins, Helen and George Schober, came down from Stoneyford drive, and Pete's brother Sam, with wife Olga and family, came over from Stewart avenue. Jan's mother, Mrs. Myrtle Woodcock, and Helen's mother, Mrs. Bessie Woodcock, came down from Eureka together, and Pete's uncle Charles, who was out this way from Illinois, and Pete's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Rizzo, were there, too. Originally, the Schobers had planned to go up to Eureka, but a small matter of rain changed all that.

Signs of the times: Harry Brown putting up a nice new TV aerial on the roof of his Stewart avenue home, with lots of very strong guy wires holding it down. . . . A truck full of new trees touring the Villages with replacements for those broken down or torn up by the storms. . . . The delight on little Connie Zachman's face when she found her pet black cat, who had gotten lost and boarded wtih the Harold Chineveres on Maddux for the night. . . . The sight of all the possible places to park on 90th street filled to overflowing Christmas day, meaning that the Ray Hales were having open house for all the family. . . . Verna Duste's Henry J parked in front of our house again, when she came up for a publicity meeting; she told us that her house shed some shingles, too, but otherwise all was well.

Gilman drive is rather empty these days—Cliff Warner's 40 foot radio antenna is lying in the back yard in a welter of clothesline as a result of the recent blow. Fortunately, there are only some three feet or so which need repairing.

The Warners had holiday guests, too. Ruth Mary's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Skelton, came up from Capistrano Beach, and her aunt, Mrs. Olive Kuhl, flew down from Oregon. She had to drive from her home in Wolf Creek to Medford to get the plane, and there were some anxious moments because of floods in that area. Cliff's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Warner, came from S. F. to make it a full family gathering.

Christmas means something extra to Susan Foster every year—it's her birthday. This year she and parents Wes and Gail left Washington street and went up to Tuolomne, near Sonora, to spend Christmas with Gail's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Peterson. Usually, the Petersons have come down here, but this year a country Christmas appealed to everybody. The trip up and back was all right, though bad in spots, but the fun of cutting their own Christmas tree was rained on most severely. Gail and Wes came back after Christmas, but Susan stayed on, with a trip to the snows in prospect before meeting her parents in Tracy for the trip back to home and school.

Donna Ottosen's brother, Jerry Perkins, and his family visited with her on Gilman between the two holidays. They were on their way to Oregon. . . . The only one of the Logan family who didn't get to enjoy the family Christmas was Ray's father, who was weather-stranded in Sparks, Nev., where the senior Logans are now living. Ray's mother came down early, ahead of the rains, and she couldn't get back to keep him company, so he spent a very lonesome holiday. The rest of the Logans met at Ray's sister Pat's home in Sharp Park for dinner Christmas day, and Kay's parents, the Will Waydemans, came to 90th street to enjoy dinner (and that pretty pink Christmas tree!) on Christmas Eve.

More and more we have been finding several branches of the same family all living in the Villages, or else old friends or acquaintances from somewhere else. All roads seem to lead here, too! Latest we heard about was the long-time friendship of Jane Whitehead (Beechwood) and Winifred Senn, who now lives on Sweetwood, being a more recent Villager than Jane. Jane and husband Brian were among the guests at a buffet supper Miss Senn gave the week before Christmas in honor of Harvey Young, a friend visiting out S. F. way from Denver. Also present were W. O. Russ and Nona Hansen, Stoneyford dwellers, who in turn gave a buffet the following week. Of course, Winifred and Jane and Brian were there, as well as Betty and Ed Morris and Della and Ralph Divers, with everybody having a very fine pre-New Year's get-together.

LUTHERAN CHURCH TO OBSERVE EPIPHANY FESTIVAL

The Festival of Epiphany will be observed at Bethel Lutheran Church, Alemany boulevard and Huron avenue, at the Sunday services at 8 a.m. and 10:45 a.m. The Christian church has designated January 6 as the date for this festival, commemorating the coming of the Wise Men to Bethlehem to worship the Christ-child. This occasion is particularly significant as it clearly reveals that the Gentiles are included in God's plan of salvation.

Sunday school and adult Bible class are conducted at 9:30 o'clock. "Truths Jesus Taught Through Parables" is the course of study for the first quarter of the new year.

The major part of the gold produced in California from 1884 to 1910 came from underground lode mines.

HOP, SKIP & DANCE, popular TV program, will observe its first birthday party January 11 and these Village Play school children have been chosen to celebrate this initial anniversary.

"WHAT FAITH CAN DO" IS TOPIC AT VISTA GRANDE

Howard Patrick McConnell, minister of the 101 Vista Grande Avenue Christian church, will speak Sunday morning at the 10:55 o'clock worship service on the subject "What Faith Can Do."

Sunday school with classes for all ages is held at 9:30 o'clock, and Oliver de Graaf announces pictures for this coming Sunday. Colored picture books after the Walt Disney method are being used now for the primary department.

Events for the coming week include Boy Scouts on Monday, The Women's Fellowship Tuesday evening, Bible study on Wednesday night, and the prepared dinner and program on Thursday evening. A school of missions and world outlook will begin this Thursday evening and Dr. McConnell will lead in the program.

Square Dance Groups To Hold Visitors Night

Visitors night will be held on Tuesday by the Square Cutters and Caper Cutters square dance groups, according to Peg Allmond, instructor. Registration for the ten-week course will close on January 17.

Dances will be held at McKay's square dance center, 1641 Taraval street, San Francisco.

Announce Jefferson Hi Office Personnel Shifts

Several changes in the jobs of office personnel at Jefferson Union High school went into effect this week. Mrs. Carolyn Munson, assistant bookkeeper who resigned, is being replaced by Mrs. Betty Ann Holcomb, who formerly served as bookroom clerk.

Mrs. Holcomb's job will be filled by Mrs. Rheo Daniels, who has been serving as attendance clerk in the auditorium study halls. Mrs. Daniels turned her duties over to Mrs. Florence Robinson, who is new to the staff.

Village School Tots Help Fete Video Birthday

"Hop, Skip and Dance," Dick Ford's popular TV program on KQED from 5 to 5:30 p.m. on Wednesdays, will have its first birthday party show on January 11. Children from the Village Play school have been chosen to celebrate this birthday of a program inaugurated one year ago. The following local children will participate: Jeffrey Lawrence, Gary Hewett, Karen Peterson, Ruth Graham, Susan Sawhill, and Peter Senter.

This is Dick Ford's fourth year teaching at the Village Play School and his eighth year teaching pre-school children from Los Gatos to Petaluma. He goes every Wednesday to help the children at Village Play school to bring nursery rhyme characters and fairy tales to life. Under his direction, the tots interpret stories that they themselves make up, as well as the familiar stories.

Village Play school, a parent-cooperative, accepts pre-school children from 3 to 5 years. It is open daily, Monday through Friday, from 8:45 to 11:45 a.m. Visitors are welcome any morning. Further information may be obtained from Mrs. James Bentz at PL. 6-2336.

Immediately following will be the first benefit game of the new year. Mrs. Ann Walters is in charge and the public is invited.

Corpus Christi Whist Planned For Sunday

Corpus Christi church will hold its monthly whist party on Sunday at 7:30 p.m. in the church hall, corner of Santa Rosa avenue and Alemany boulevard, San Francisco.

Parishioners from Brazil and Persia avenues, Mission and London streets comprise the Block "I" committee.

Announce Deadline For Dispatcher Job Filing

Deadline for filing for the city position of police dispatcher clerk is January 14, it was announced today. Interested persons may get applications at the city manager's office, city hall, 75 Wellington avenue.

Other qualifications and specific duties may be learned at the city manager's office.

Unoccupied residence of Mrs. Bernadine Hill, 384 Chester street, was burglarized sometime between December 24 and January 2, it was reported to police. Loss estimate has not yet been compiled, although Mrs. Hill said that numerous furnishings were taken.

DEAR FRIENDS:

Do you have any Catholic friends?

Are you curious about their beliefs and why they do this or that—or do not. Do the true ones annoy you because they are so content?

What about yourself and religion? Is it not actually a problem of unbelief rather than disbelief? You are not sure about it so merely withhold your belief. It is not a matter of positively rejecting a truth, is it?

But Are You Being Fair To Yourself?

If you are interested in the Church of your Catholic friends, you owe it to yourself to obtain a distinct idea of what they believe—what basis their thought and conduct is built upon.

Vague and faulty notions about God start all the trouble. Clear them up. We would like to help you.

If you would like our help, then feel most welcome to attend a series of informal, informative talks given by Father Allen every Thursday, 8:30 p.m. beginning January 12 in O.L.P.H. School Auditorium, 50 Wellington avenue.

The Board of Directors has announced the appointment of Mrs. Alyce Shea as Secretary-Manager for the Westlake Improvement Association.

MRS. ALYCE SHEA
. . . Takes WIA Position

Mrs. Shea, a native of San Francisco, graduated from St. Rose Academy and attended Heald's Business college. For seven years she was office manager for a prominent business concern in San Francisco and at one time worked for the Consulate General of Brazil in an executive capacity.

Effective as of January 1, Mrs. Shea will be at the association office located at 95 South Mayfair avenue from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. where she may be contacted either personally or by telephone: Plaza 5-1352.

Mrs. Shea will devote full time to association affairs, a long felt need, as the Association has outgrown the services of a part-time secretary, according to President Starr Dunham. Members' suggestions are welcome and Mrs. Shea will endeavor to help those who may have related problems concerning the association, Dunham reports.

Public Forum On Religion Set At OLPH

A public information forum on religious will be held every Thursday at 8:30 p.m. beginning next Thursday, January 12, in Our Lady of Perpetual Help School auditorium, 50 Wellington avenue, according to Father Norman Allen, who will lead the discussion.

Father Allen stated that the establishment of the forum was the result of an experiment conducted along these lines last spring which was most successful. "You might say that the many inquiries from Daly City residents, which is indicative of the great interest in religion now holding sway throughout the nation, really created the idea of a public information forum on religion," Father Allen said. He points out that these gatherings are very informal. There are no collections or fees of any kind. The question box permits those attending who do not care to ask questions to put them in writing without identifying themselves. The forum is open to the public and everyone is welcome.

Square Dancing For Beginners Opens Here Tuesday Night

Square dancing for beginners will be offered every Tuesday night at 474 San Diego avenue, starting next week, by the Daly City Stardusters club.

The two-hour lessons, which start at 8:30 p.m., will cost 50 cents each. Arne Nielsen is caller and instructor.

The beginners, following completion of the course, will be eligible for membership in the Stardusters.

The Stardusters, a non-profit social club, with 32 members, will hold its March of Dimes benefit dance January 28 at Woodrow Wilson school. Admission is $1.50 per couple.

Church Is Depot For Flood Relief; Supplies Are Sought

In response to calls for clothing and bedding for flood victims, several truckloads of supplies were picked up at the Broadmoor Presbyterian church last week, according to the Rev. John A. Glasse.

All residents of Broadmoor and Garden Villages were urged to bring supplies to the church, which was kept open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. most of the week, where the Salvation Army trucks picked them up for transport to the flooded areas. The Rev. Glasse issued broadcasts every two hours over the church outdoor public address system, and members of the various church groups made personal and telephone contacts asking for the needed items.

Foremost among the callers was an unidentified woman, who had herself been a flood victim at one time. She heard the broadcasts, and promptly began making calls urging help in gratitude for the assistance she had been given under the same tragic circumstances.

Explorer Scouts Post 84, which is sponsored by the Village Churchmen, toured the hill area last Wednesday, collecting supplies from door to door and taking them to central collection points, from where they were later taken to the church. Scouts Lee Chessman, Larry Bennett, Terry Anger, Bill Krueger, Bob Garretson and Dan Anderson participated in the drive. Central collection points were at the Thomas Mullen home on Stoneyford, the Edgar Unthanks on Thornhill, the Lynn Leonards on MacArthur, and the Glasse home on Larchmont.

According to the pastor, the broadcasts were heard by a great many people, which is significant in view of the fact that several years ago the Presbyterian church had been designated as a disaster center in connection with civilian defense because of the loudspeaker system. The present situation proves that this plan would be feasible if such need should arise, he said.

HOLY COMMUNION SUNDAY FOR MEN AT OLPH CHURCH

The Holy Name society of Our Lady of Perpetual Help parish will receive Holy Communion in a body at the 8 o'clock Mass, next Sunday, which is the feast of the Holy Family.

The business meeting will follow the Communion breakfast to be held in the school auditorium after Mass. New officers to be installed are George Calegari, president; Eddie Edwards, vice-president; Dorman Post, secretary; Fred Klingler, treasurer, and Lou Thiebaut, marshal. Many projects for the New Year will be presented to the membership by the executive board for adoption.

SHARON YVONNE RIVES, daughter of Mrs. Helen Caurice Rather, 257 Westlake avenue, is home on leave after recruit training. She is pictured with Chief Yeoman Barbara J. Tidwell, of the U. S. Navy recruiting station, 6705 Mission street, Daly City, where she enlisted in the Waves on September 26. Sharon completed nine weeks of indoctrination for the Waves at Bainbridge, Maryland. Upon completion of her leave she will return to Bainbridge to attend Dental Technician's school. After this training she will be assigned to duty at a Navy shore activity.

Temple Religious School Re-Opens On Sunday Morning

After a two week vacation period, the religious school of Westlake Temple will reopen this Sunday morning at 10 a.m.

With the reopening of the religious school, a class for beginners in Hebrew will be organized for the new year and parents interested in having their children attend this class (those in Grade 4 and up are eligible) are asked to call the Temple office, PL 5-9463. Hebrew classes are held twice a week on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Irving Saraf, Hebrew teacher who has lived in Israel for 15 years, is in charge of the Hebrew class. A new Bar Mitzvah class is also being organized and it is recommended that parents enroll sons at an early age for this training.

Rabbi Bernard D Rosenberg announces that the next adult education class will meet on Monday evening at the Temple House. These sessions have been very well attended and are proving to be outstanding in every way, the Rabbi said. Everyone is invited to attend. Classes commence at 8 p.m.

This Friday evening at 8:30 Barry Freund, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Freund, will become Bar Mitzvah at Sabbath Eve services. A reception and social will follow the service and all are invited to attend.

The high school youth group (The "Teens") will meet this Sunday night. A meeting, social and dancing are on the agenda. All interested are asked to call the Temple office, PL 5-9463.

The December meeting of Westlake Cub Pack 248 was held at the Daly City community center, which was beautifully decorated by the Cubs and featured a large Christmas tree with ornaments made by the boys at their den meetings. Later during the meeting, Santa Claus visited the pack and presented each Cub with a model plane and candy canes to the younger children present.

During the meeting, it was announced that Den 2 sold the most walnuts in the annual sale that these cubs conducted recently. Skipper Smith of Den 2 received a commendation for selling the greatest number of walnuts during this sale. Boys of this pack were taken to see "Cinerama Holiday" as a reward for their efforts.

Investiture Held At Brownie Troop Christmas Party

A visit to Shriners hospital and investiture of a new member highlighted the Brownie Troop 111 Christmas party held recently at Westlake clubhouse.

The 19 Brownies first visited the hospital and presented patients with yarn dolls they had made, after which they returned to the clubhouse and witnessed investiture of Darien Ryan as a Brownie. Miss Ryan's mother, Mrs. Clifford Ryan, was on hand for the ceremonies.

Games were played and gifts exchanged. Refreshments were served on a festively decorated table.

The two troop leaders, Mesdames Rose Weiss and Edith Haight, were surprised with gifts from the Brownies.

The party was organized and carried out by Brownies Janice Coyne, Sharon Ellingson, Susan Trapani, Sandra Bizzo, Alice Haight and Mary Linda Weiss, assisted by leaders and Mrs. Annabelle Coynex.

STEAK BONE IS ONLY CLUE TO BREAK-IN

A well-chewed bone from a T-bone steak lying on the living room floor was the only clue left by vandals who broke into the home of Kenneth E. Janigian, 36 Crestline avenue, on New Year's Eve.

Janigian told police that he returned to his home at 11:20 p.m. after a four and a half hour absence to find his front door open and the house ransacked.

Nothing had been found missing at the time the report was made although Janigian said that a .30 calibre rifle had been transferred from a closet to the top of a bed.

CHARCOAL BROILER FUMES SEND LOCAL COOK TO HOSPITAL

Treated at Junipero Serra hospital early Friday morning for inhalation of fumes from a charcoal broiler was George B. Russell, 35, 60 Forest Grove drive, apartment 20.

Local police were called to the Russell home by Mrs. Russell after her husband fell ill. The victim, employee of a San Francisco restaurant, apparently inhaled the fumes while in a specially constructed barbecue truck.

Jeff High PTA Donates $100 To Students

Students of the Jefferson Union High school can look forward to a brighter new year because of their PTA. At the regular December meeting, Mrs. Fred Kruse presented a check for $100 to the student welfare fund, under the direction of Miss Ada Wood, dean of girls.

In thanking the PTA for the welfare fund, Miss Wood stated in her letter that the money would be used, "for students who have forgotten their lunch money, their money for pictures, or for other activities in the school. It will also be used for glasses or for work on teeth for those who most need it. It will provide goods for the clothing and homemaking classes for those girls who are unable to provide their own in their class. It will provide for gym shoes, lost books, car fare, lunches and graduation assessment programs for those students who are no able financially to take care of these items themselves."

Miss Wood said that the counseling office will try to put the money to the best possible uses.

Rose Society Shows Pruning Techniques

More than 50 persons in all attended the gala function.

LUTHERAN CHURCH TO OBSERVE EPIPHANY FESTIVAL

The Festival of Epiphany will be observed at Bethel Lutheran church, Alemany boulevard and Huron avenue, at the Sunday services at 8 a.m. and 10:45 a.m. The Christian church has designated January 6 as the date for this festival, commemorating the coming of the Wise Men to Bethlehem to worship the Christ-child. This occasion is particularly significant as it clearly reveals that the Gentiles are included in God's plan of salvation.

Sunday school and adult Bible class are conducted at 9:30 o'clock. "Truths Jesus Taught Through Parables" is the course of study for the first quarter of the new year.

Barley has been an important California field crop since the Mission period.

These words spake Jesus, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, . . . I pray for them. (John 17:1, 9.)

In his autobiography, Lincoln Steffens told this incident. As a small boy, he mounted his pony early one morning and hurried to bring the doctor to his friend, a Mrs. Neely, who was very ill. "You're a brave boy," said the doctor; "We'll save her together. You've done your part, and I'll do mine." Lincoln Steffens protested. His part was not over. "What'll you do now?" asked the doctor. "I'll pray for her. She wants me to." "Good" replied the doctor. He added, "Maybe the best thing I can do will be to tell her you are praying for her!"

Two thousand years ago our Lord knelt in prayer. Something happened. Defeat was turned into victory. Out of weakness came strength.

This first week of the new year, we kneel in prayer. This may well be the best thing we can do for ourselves, our families, our church, our world.

PRAYER

Heavenly Father, Thou dost exhort us to pray. Thou hast promised to grant that which we ask in faith. Encourage us by the assurance that Thou dost always desire our good, and dost will Thy best for us. Nothing is too hard for Thee. Help us to trust Thee. For the Master's sake. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

"By its fruits your prayer will be known to yourself and others." —St. Teresa of Avila.

PLEA ON ABORTION CHARGE DELAYED TO JANUARY 16

Mrs. Alta Anderson, 57-year-old Broadmoor woman charged with two counts of operating an abortion mill, was granted continuance to January 16 to enter plea to the second charge.

She was scheduled to plead in Judge Aylett R. Cotton's superior court Monday.

The trial for Mrs. Anderson, and her daughter, Mae Rodley, 38, of 435 B street, was scheduled to be held January 16 but a new trial date will be set at that time because of the continuance. The district attorney entered a motion Monday to consolidate the two charges and the judge will rule on this motion at the January 16 date.

Mrs. Anderson and her daughter were indicted by the grand jury on November 21 after a raid at Mrs. Anderson's home, 590 Washington street.

A San Francisco housewife's testimony was instrumental in securing the grand jury indictments of the two women on abortion charges.

A second witness who said she had undergone an abortion at the Broadmoor home led to Mrs. Anderson's second indictment.

The meeting is open "to anyone who is for Stevenson" and will be a follow-up to the Northern California meeting held in San Francisco December 2.

Councilman Edward J. Reilly of San Mateo will act as chairman of the meeting. (Pat) Brown; Roger Kent, vice-chairman of the State Democratic Central committee; Alan Cranston of Los Altos, president of the California Democratic council; Mrs. Robbins Milbank of Burlingame, former foreign correspondent; Thomas P. State Streamlines License Renewals

"The State of California has streamlined its motor vehicle registration laws to make annual license renewals fast and convenient for the state's six and one-half million motorists." State Assemblyman Charles W. Meyers of the 19th District said here today.

Commenting on the scheduled issue of new 1956 license plates which begins for most car owners on January 3 and for commercial vehicle owners on December 1, the legislator said: "In its budget acts, the legislature has provided for increasingly efficient service and new Department of Motor Vehicle branch offices where the need has been established."

He pointed out that there are two such branches in the district, authorized to handle all types of registration applications. They are located at 1425 Noriega street, in the Sunset, and at 6165 Mission street, in the outer Mission. "We have consulted and advised with the Motor Vehicle Department on the district's needs for motor vehicle service, and believe these locations are at the most convenient points available. These offices will be open regular state office hours, 8 to 5, Monday through Friday, and on Saturdays, January 7, 14, 21, and 28, and on February 4, from 8 to noon."

"I believe local motorists will join me in commending the banks of this area for their generous public service in making space and other facilities available to the Motor Vehicle Department for the annual renewal period between January 1 and February 4," Mr. Meyers said.

"These include the American Trust Co., at 599 Buckingham Way in Stonestown and the Bank of America, Geneva Branch, at 5150 Mission street. Bank Stations will be open during regular banking hours."

The town of Jacksonville, California, is named after Colonel Alden Jackson who settled there in the autumn of 1849, according to the California State Automobile Association.

Christian Science Sermon Will Concern Power Of Prayer

The purifying power of true prayer will be set forth in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Sacrament" at Christian Science services in Sharp Park this Sunday.

Bible passages will include the counsel of Christ Jesus regarding prayer (Matt. 6:6): "But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly."

Continuing the explanation of prayer, a correlative passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy states (15:9): "To enter into the heart of prayer, the door of the erring senses must be closed. Lips must be mute and materialism silent, that men may have audience with Spirit, the divine Principle, Love, which destroys all error."

The Golden Text is from Psalms (51:10): "Create in me a clean heart, o God; and renew a right spirit within me."

Fiscal Policies Of Police, Fire Dist. Hit In Report

districts engage in certain perfectly legal practices that make a mockery of sound budgeting. The hidden funds are so large that the annual budget is quite misleading in both districts." Baughman said the fire department budget "is inoperative through the use of large unbudgeted surpluses, while the police district obtains hidden reserves through the use of large tax delinquencies."

"Contract With Sheriff"

Baughman recommended that "careful consideration be given to contracting Broadmoor's police patrol services with the sheriff of San Mateo county. Integrated police protection would then be fully available."

The report also struck out at what was termed "social activities" of the two districts. The author also recommended that study be given to the elimination of the Broadmoor police reserve, "as police work in incompatible with social activities, and a one man patrol is adequate for law abiding neighborhoods such as Broadmoor."

Baughman said both districts engage in or sponsor social and supplementary fund raising activities. "It is suggested," he continued, "that the desirability of such activities be carefully appraised as it is under such conditions that temptations develop and special favors become established."

Some of the extra benefits listed were dress uniforms for fire volunteers and an ambulance for the police district.

"Objectionable"

"The raising of privately controlled funds by public servants has many objectionable features," Baughman related. "It is particularly obnoxious when the public servants can bring pressure through their law enforcement powers. The plea that it is all for a good cause should not be permitted. If an ambulance is necessary, then the public officials should provide the essential service. If it is not warranted, in the opinion of the responsible elected officials, then a tightly knit clique should not be in the position to make a contrary determination and to implement same.

"Without exception, where the citizens have permitted those on the public payroll to determine what is 'best for the people' there has been graft, inefficiency, corruption and waste."

Later in the report, in general findings on Broadmoor police protection, Baughman commented that, "The district engages in social and fund raising activities incompatible with good police practice. Although in existence for several years, the district records are inadequate."

Baughman revealed further that in his research on the Colma Fire district, "a most unusual situation was encountered," in that he was not given access to the district's records and reports on expenditures and fire runs.

"Locked Up"

Baughman said he was told by Fire Chief Louis Nannini that all such records were the responsibility of the fire marshal and that the fire marshal kept them locked up. Baughman also related that Nannini told him the marshal was absent from the district and that to return on the following day would be of no avail to Baughman.

After his interviews with Chief Ray Savage for information on the Broadmoor Police district, Baughman said he submitted copies of his findings to Savage.

"When the rough draft of the field notes covering the interview was submitted for correction, the chief was quoted as replying as follows: " 'There are many facts in your report that are erroneous, and to make all the necessary corrections would facilitate my expending considerable time, which I cannot do at this time. I have discussed this matter with the board of police commissioners and they have instructed me to advise you that they do not wish the time of a man be expended to complete this report.' "

Baughman declared that the Broadmoor Police district did not maintain the usual police statistics and records. His tabulation showed that "the police district does not have a serious crime problem, that the citizens in the district are predominantly law abiding home owners, that there is no organized vice or other conditions requiring intensive police work."

Major Item

A major item of interest to Daly City in the report was the estimated cost of purchasing California Water Service system in the event of annexation. According to Baughman, acquisition of that portion of the system serving Broadmoor would probably cost between $227,000 and $240,000.

In addition to this outlay, at least one additional well and additional reservoir would be needed to service Broadmoor demands, as well as a $30,000 expense for connecting Daly City's water supply to Broadmoor.

Baughman estimated that very little additional personnel and equipment would be required if Daly City fire and police facilities took over coverage of the Broadmoor area. He said there was already much duplication between the Colma and Daly City fire fighting services.

Adequate storm drainage facilities would be another major cost item were Daly City to annex Broadmoor. According to Baughman, drainage facilities to handle the Broadmoor run-off would cost about $96,000.

Baughman gave no actual proposals for distribution of cost between Broadmoor and Daly City on such items.

Baughman's extensive report will be taken up by a joint annexation committee made up of Daly City officials and Broadmoor Property Owners association directors.

GAYNESS PREVAILS AT VILLAGE PLAY SCHOOL YULE PARTY

Gay spirits and fat tummies prevailed at the Village Play school annual Christmas party. The gaily decorated tree, with ornaments made by the children, was the center of festivity. Each child received a gingerbread Santa Claus and a gift under the tree, as well as other party goodies.

The Mothers, who helped their children celebrate the occasion, entered into the spirit with pleasure, and brightly decorated cookies, made by them, carried through the Christmas theme.

News of Your Local Businesses and Business Men

LESLIE'S DRESS SHOP "Clearance" last week was a real humdinger! Owner Bill Rubino "Cleans" just twice a year—and he does it with the verve of an ardent housewife facing Spring Cleaning. Surprise here was a table piled high with blouses—some selling regularly for $8.95—bearing the sign "All blouses on this table $1.00." Well, no sale or such at LESLIE'S this week, but Spring merchandise is starting to come in—and it is LOVELY!

At GAMBLE'S WESTERN AUTO SUPPLY CO., you'll find bargains galore—all bearing the Red Tag you've become familiar with during the past year. These Red Tag Specials are changed from week to week and are well worth checking!

News from Mission street's "Top of the Hill" is especially good this week around GLEASON'S DRESS SHOP. We asked Helen Sheehy and her sister Rachel about the possibility of a post holiday sale or such...but they said "No"...we thought about having a Sale, but then we decided to send things to the Flood Victims instead." Sooo—at Gleason's you'll find no sale, as such, although some "better dresses" will be reduced in price.

Broadmoor is the place to go for really Bonanza buys this week!

WEITZEL'S SHOE STORE will have many store wide bargains during their now-in-progress Semi-Annual SALE, but we recommend you head for that $1.00 Surprise Table in the rear of the shop! Last year, this table took the town by storm and we hear the repeat will be every bit as good—if not better than its predecessor! That's at Weitzel's Shoe Store in the King's Market shopping center.

KIDDIEVILLE'S Semi-Annual Sale starts this weekend, too, and owners Mr. and Mrs. Godes say bargains will be bigger and better than ever! Kiddieville, as you know, is a quality shop featuring clothing for infants and up to size 14—and Sale Days here are the real McCoy!

WINTER HAZARDS

"It's your responsibility to learn how to drive safely in winter weather," according to Inspector E. Sundermann.

"Winter is fraught with dangers for drivers. Slick roads that may send a car skidding at any moment, rain streaming on the windshield, early darkness which obscures the driver's vision, wear and tear on the engine caused by low temperatures, all these are major causes in winter traffic fatalities. Safe driving requires a complete overhauling of both car and driver habits, Sundermann said, before one will be able to cope with the dangers involved in winter driving.

"A car is properly equipped for winter driving and the driver must know how to handle his car safely in winter weather if winter traffic tolls are considerably reduced," he said.

Sundermann strongly recommends the following six rules for safe winter driving be adopted by all motorists as their code of the road for winter driving.

1. Accept the responsibility. Do all in your power to drive without accident. Don't blame the weatherman for an accident. Be prepared to meet any situation that may rise in winter driving.

2. Get the "feel" of the road. Try brakes occasionally while driving slowly and when there is no passing traffic. Find out just how slippery the road is and adjust your speed to road and weather conditions.

3. Keep the windshield and windows clear of dirt and rain. Be sure your headlights, windshield wiper blades, and defroster are in top condition. Remember, you have to see danger to avoid it.

4. Use tire chains and good tires. Whether you use regular or snow tires, be sure the tread is in good condition and not worn smooth. Use tire chains in snow. They cut stopping distances and increase traction four to seven times.

5. Pump your brakes to slow down or stop. Jamming them on can lock the wheels and throw you into a dangerous skid.

6. Follow at a safe distance. Keep well back of the vehicle ahead, ahead, give yourself plenty of room in which to stop.

Three Teams Scramble For First In DC Bowling

Vince & Fred Cocktails hammered away for 2½ wins over Westlake Homes in a make-up game at Brentwood Tuesday night to push the Daly City-Colma Bowling league into a three-way scramble for first.

V & F's minor upset deadlocked them and Westlake in second with records of 28½16½, while San Pedro Lunch held on to a skinny 29-16 lead.

First place will be up for grabs next Tuesday when regular league action resumes, as Westlake tangles with San Pedro and V & F shoots for three victories in an attempt to assume commmand of the league while the former are chewing up each other's records.

Westlake's 2½ setbacks Tuesday were fashioned by steady play on the part of the cocktail gang's E. Ebinger, Tony Santos and Babe DeLuca, who had series of 558, 520 and 528, respectively. Ebinger posted one game of 225.

Westlake salvaged some glory when their ace kegler, Stan White, turned in a game of 230, which ties the season's best, and wound up with a fat series of 597.

V & F took the first game, 859-884, bowled to a 829-829 tie in the second tilt, and eked by with a 800-792 win in the third outing.

Golf Tips

TROUBLE SHOTS

One of the reasons Sam Snead is considered by many as the finest shot maker of all times is the fact that he knows what to do when in trouble. He has the sense of concentration that so many players lack when finding themselves deep in trouble. As great a shot make as Snead is, you never see him attempting highly improbable shots. His opponents would love nothing better than to see him try those nearly impossible shots, knowing full well that a double or triple bogey would all but put him out of the running, whereas a sensible safety shot would put him clear of trouble with a fair chance of getting par or at the most a bogey.

Situations like this come under the heading of self management or self control. Without these two assets even the best shotmakers could not possibly continue to shoot good golf day in and day out. How does this apply to the average player? To begin with the average player does not have anywhere near the time to practice any type of golf shot let alone trouble shots. So what is the wisest course to take when you knock one in the woods say? Play the ball safe at all times. Even if it means lying two where your opponent is in one. Remember this always, you aren't beaten until the last putt is in the hole. When the situation calls for a low chip shot to get under low hanging branches, use a club with very little loft such as a three or four iron. Play the ball back toward the right foot, and keep your weight well forward on your left side. Keep your eyes glued to the ball, hit the ball with a short firm stroke and follow through. When you find that you are behind bushes or small trees with no way of getting around them, use a well lofted club play the ball in the center of your stance, keep the face open and hit down at the ball with a good follow through. This will enable you to clear most bushes or small trees.

Leave the spectacular shots to your opponent. Use good judgment and win a few bets yourself for a change.

Arrest Car Thieves Before Owner Realizes His Auto Is Missing

Three Daly City youths were picked up in San Bruno with a stolen car Saturday before the owner of the auto knew his car was missing. Police said San Bruno officers stopped the boys driving a car registered to Martin H. Chaney, 75 Citrus street, at 11:30 p.m.

When local police called Chaney, he was surprised to find his car missing. The youths were released to custody of their parents pending action in juvenile court.

Battle Of Tall Men Tonight As Indians Travel To Carlmont For PAL Cage Debut

Fighting fire with fire, Varsity Coach Mike Orlich will throw in the tall men tonight (Friday) when Jefferson High school makes its debut in the PAL basketball race at the Carlmont gymnasium.

Tip-off for the preliminary 30s contest will be at 7:30 p.m.

Although the Orlichmen have tasted defeat in nine practice, one tournament game, while compiling only two victories, these in tournament play, they still remain favorites to overpower the tall but inexperienced Carlmont five.

Starting club for tonight's game, averaging well over six feet, includes Ray Schultz (6' 4") at the pivot post, Darrell Hutchenson and Ray Vuillemainroy, (6'), forwards, and Jim Honeywell (6' 1") and Bill Curtis, (6' 1") guards. Backing up this starting five will be the alternate first stringers, Bob Comstock and Larry Pottenger, forwards, Delmar Scott at Guard and Tom Cloutier, center.

Comstock, who has played extensively in practice contests, may see only limited action tonight because of an ankle injury suffered Tuesday.

The Daly City 30s have three wins, five losses, under Coach Tony Giammona, but are also expected to prevail tonight over the Scot opposition.

Probable starters are: Barry Haanan, center; Gary Ryan, Puzzy Firth, forwards; George Rocci, Al Dye, guards.

The two local clubs will get their second league test next Tuesday when they face San Mateo at the Bearcat gym in an afternoon contest. Next Friday the Indians play their first home game, meeting Burlingame at 7:30 p.m.

AIRLINE MECHANIC PLEADS NOT GUILTY TO DRUNK DRIVING

A 31-year-old airline mechanic pleaded not guilty in municipal court Tuesday to a felony charge of drunk driving. Scheduled to appear in court again Tuesday is Russell E. Thompson, 31, 575-A 43rd avenue, San Francisco.

Thompson was arrested Sunday by San Mateo county sheriff's officers on a Daly City warrant.

The arrest is the result of a December 15 accident in which Thompson was involved. Injured in the collision at Lake Merced and Alemany boulevards were Shelley Smith, 28, 254 Abbot avenue, apartment 2, his wife, Lorraine, 27, and Thompson.

Police said the accident occurred when Thompson attempted a right turn from Alemany onto Lake Merced boulevard. Thompson was cited for making an improper right turn at that time.

2 EX-CONS CONFESS TO CASBAH HOLDUP

Two ex-convicts, captured recently in a Stockton holdup, have confessed to the armed robbery at the Casbah tavern, 6192 Mission street, on November 28, according to Bruno Conci, Daly City police inspector.

Being held in Stockton are Charles E. Zekowsky and Robert Paul Lane.

The Casbah robbery occurred when the two bandits, engaging in a gun duel with James Bergstrom, off-duty police officer, escaped with about $450 in cash register receipts.

Verducci To Attend NCAA 4-Day Confab

Mayor Joseph Verducci, chief factotum of the athletic department at San Francisco State college, will take part in the four-day NCAA conference in Los Angeles January 8 through January 11.

Verducci, also head football coach at SFS, will attend the meetings of the directors of athletics, as well as the American Football Coaches association.

Verducci says he will be primarily interested in the small college group's sessions on unrestricted televising of athletic events. Verducci has opposed widespread telecasting of games on the basis that it hurts the small school's athletic program and attendance.

Mossi, Tribe Agree On Salary For 1956

The Cleveland Indians announced this week that Don Mossi of Daly City and Herb Score, the Tribe's ace left-handed pitchers, have agreed to terms for the coming season.

While salaries were not revealed, general manager Hank Greenberg indicated that both received sizeable increases.

Indians Aren't Bad, Statistics Show At Jeff

A sorrowful-looking practice season record was tabulated this week by Jefferson High school basketball coach Mike Orlich, but a second look at the statistics showed the Indians weren't so bad off after all.

In 12 practice outings, three of which were in tournament play, the Jeffs won only two contests, both of these during the tourney.

However, Orlich pointed out that of the 10 losses, six were by either one or two points.

The Indians have scored a total of 470 points, against 517 for the opponents, a differential of only 47, or an average losing margin of 4.7 points for the ten games lost . . . again, not such bad figures.

The hometown club has potted 179 field goals, 112 free throws. All the losses might have been wins had the Daly City team been able to connect on a few of the 115 free throws they've missed. Their percentage on the charity tosses is less than 50 per cent, while Orlich figures a team should hit between 75 and 80 per cent at the foul line.

The Indians have been aggressive, at least their personal fouls would indicate. They have been caught fouling 152 times, against 132 for their opponents.

Forward Darrell Hutchenson leads the scoring parade with 99 points, followed closely by Forward Larry Pottenger, who has 91. That Orlich has some pretty evenly divided talent is evident in the fact that Pottenger won't be among the starters in tonight's opening league contest against Carlmont.

Guard Bill Curtis is in third spot with 71 points.

Other individual point totals include: Ray Schultz, 49; Ray Vuillemainroy, 47; Jim Honeywell, 39; Bob Comstock, 35; Tom Cloutier, 32; Delmar Scott, 5; Hank Edwards, 2.

Last Quarter Fizzle Gives Jeffs Ninth Casaba Loss

With precision-like regularity, Jefferson High school varsity basketball team lost their ninth straight game Friday, bowing to CCSF reserves, 41-40.

The Indians, who have been plagued by their inability to perform in the final quarter, ran true to form as they blew a healthy 26-19 third quarter lead and dropped behind in the waning minutes of the contest.

Coach Mike Orlich's club was operating without services of regulars Larry Pottenger, Bill Curtis, Bob Comstock and Jim Honeywell, who were away working, but the Indian five still held command throughout most of the game.

The score was tied, 6-6, at the quarter, and the Jeffs took a 16-10 half-time lead and held on to it until the fourth quarter.

Indian substitute Stu Geddes abetted the CCSF cause in the final two minutes, as he threw four passes away while the collegians utilized a full court press.

Center Ray Schultz tanked 12 points to lead the Daly City cause. Ray Vuillemainroy picked up 11, Darrell Hutchenson, 10, Delmar Scott, 4, and Tom Cloutier, 3.

DUMP SITE ISSUE WILL BE AIRED AT MONDAY MEETING

Public hearing on Daly City's proposed annexation of 84 acres of uninhabited coastal property south of Westlake will be held before the city council Monday night starting at 8 p.m.

Of the 84 acres, 74 are planned for a municipal fill and cover garbage disposal site. There has been considerable Coastside protest against the dump, and the opponents of Daly City's dump plan are expected to be on hand Monday.
